While all of us realize that the pernicious practice of artificially boosting prices has been responsible for much of the increased cost of produce to the ultimate consumer, at the same time the law of supply and demand is still in force. To cite an instance: Not long ago hay was selling at St. Albans, a large market for that product, for $18 to $20 a ton. Not much hay was being offered. When the farmers began to draw hay into town in quantities the price quickly dropped to $16.50.

Secretary of State Guy W. Bailey has another job. Because of the change in the laws governing elections it becomes his duty to prepare and forward to the town clerks throughout the state the ballots to be used next Tuesday. Heretofore this work has been done by the county clerks. In recent years a legislature that didn't make a material addition to the duties of the strenuous and industrious official at Essex Junction would probably adjourn with an uneasy conscience. And yet, Harland B. Howe, the democratic candidate for governor, apparently can't understand why it costs money to run Guy.

Why not have Perfect Lenses?

Improvements and betterments in glasses are just as frequent as anything else.

Until a few years ago all lenses were flat, because no one had thought of a better way to make them.

Today nearly 90 per cent. of lenses fitted are Toric lenses, curved to follow the shape of the eyeball.

Toric give a perfect range of vision from every angle—the edges do not confuse you when looking from the corner of the eye.

Let us demonstrate the many advantages of our EYE SHAPE TORIC LENSES.

Graham's Recommendations

The recommendations of State Auditor Horace F. Graham which appear elsewhere in this issue are worthy of consideration by every voter of the state and are of special value to prospective members of the legislature.

Mr. Graham has never been noted for sensational or spectacular publicity. His office has been conducted for many years in a model fashion and his reports on state conditions have been legislative textbooks. Hence the importance of his present recommendations in their relation to state affairs.

It was perhaps a forgone conclusion that the auditor would recognize and endorse the Republican proposal for a budget system in handling state finances, and the language of the report is of a more or less familiar character. That this reform now promises to be made a matter of state law is particularly gratifying to The Herald, which has given considerable space to this and kindred needs, of making businesslike the state's financial system.

Another recommendation of extreme importance is that dealing with municipal courts. The auditor's proposal to extend the jurisdiction of such courts opens the way to a plan which is being seriously considered in other quarters and which is likely to have the attention of the legislative committees on judiciary.

This proposal is to extend the jurisdiction of these municipal courts to take in civil causes up to $1,000 or even more, with such extension of their powers as would send most of the minor criminal cases to the municipal courts and so relieve the county courts of business which is apparently at present responsible for the congested condition of dockets and the demand which resulted in the present complicated system of courts.

Both of these proposals should be given the most respectful consideration.

Another subject which will appeal to every one who has had occasion to delve into the enormous mass of printed matter which the state pays for is the recommendation touching unnecessary duplication of state officers' reports. This, also, is merely suggestive, and opens the much wider subject of eliminating entirely volume after volume of state publications, which are now veritable junk, unread by the large majority of the voters of the state and never seen

FOUGHT HARD TO KEEP HIS JOB

Indiana Man All Run Down—Had No Strength—No Energy Left—Blood Poor—How Vinol Helped Him.

Shelbyville, Ind. — "I was all run-down, had no energy, my blood was so poor I felt badly all the time and my face was covered with pimples. I am a clerk in the hotel and had to put up an awful fight to keep at work."

"I tried Beef, Iron and Wine, and other remedies without benefit. I learned of how Vinol had helped others and decided to try it. After taking the first bottle I noticed a great improvement in my condition. I continued taking it and now I am rid of all my troubles and cannot say anything too good for Vinol." — Roy F. Brand, Shelbyville, Ind.

For all run-down, weak, devitalized conditions of men and women, nothing equals Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil.

Vinol is a constitutional remedy. It creates an appetite, aids digestion, makes pure, healthy blood. In this natural manner it builds up strength and vitality.

Try a bottle with the understanding you can get your money back if Vinol does not help you.

outside a state department or a library shelf.

In this respect the auditor opens up a practical detail of state waste which should have the attention of the legislature without fail and without delay. There is unquestionably a very considerable proportion of the matter printed at state expense that is of no value whatever.

The entire subject of duplication might also very properly be considered in this relation; duplications in reports, duplications in data, duplication in education institutions, duplication in legislation, duplication in administration.

Naturally, the auditor has not gone into the wider fields of duplication and state expenses, but his recommendations are of the most valuable and suggestive character.

Incidentally, it would not be improper to note that State Auditor Horace F. Graham is proving every year his value to the state and his fidelity to the voters whose servant he is.—Rutland Herald.

TO BUILD GIRLS' CAMP

Site Purchased Near Neal's Lake in Lunenburg

Final deeds have been executed transferring to Lawrence P. Leach of St. Johnsbury, and Karl O. Balch of Lunenburg, about 150 acres of the farm lands on the west side of Neal's lake in Lunenburg, giving them practically the entire control of that side of the lake. The construction of their proposed girls' camp is progressing rapidly—the assembly hall with its various annexations being already well under way. It is said that the work will proceed throughout the coming winter in order to be ready for opening the first of July, 1915.

The camp is at an altitude of about 1500 feet and from it is had a most magnificent view of the entire White Mountain range. An extended and careful inspection of many of the most successful camps in Vermont and New Hampshire has recently been made by Mr. Balch and Mr. Leach, with the result that modern and approved methods will be adopted by them, both in the construction and management of the camp.
